

Hire a Chef - It's Simple and Easy!

Honest to Goodness Personal Chef Services is the industry leader in the greater Seattle area that helps busy professionals and anyone with special dietary needs who want to enjoy nutritious, restaurant-quality meals at home each week and for home entertaining occasions. We are a trusted industry leader who helps those who don't know how to cook, don't know what to cook, or don't have time to cook.

In-Home Meal Prep

After a long day of work, you'll LOVE having your fridge stocked with fresh, delicious weekday dinners to enjoy with your family. We take care of the meal planning, shopping, and cooking so you can relax and enjoy your evenings.

Prepared Meal Delivery

Eats Amore™ is a supper subscription service designed to support your home with nutritious, delicious food that saves you time and money. Our cooking is a little bit home-style, a little bit gourmet, and A LOT delicious!

Home Entertaining

The best thing about hiring a party chef to serve your gatherings with family and friends is that you get to enjoy a great time with your guests instead of spending your time in the kitchen.

Cooking Classes

What cooking techniques and recipes would you like to learn? We are knowledgeable about all cuisines and have decades of experience to teach you anything you'd like. In-person or virtual, our cooking classes and demos will inspire your inner foodie!

Kitchen Organization

An organized kitchen makes you feel much more comfortable and able to work efficiently in the heart of your home. Our team will guide you through what equipment and tools you need, what you don't need, and the best place to store everything.

Weddings

Most couples think of traditional caterers when it comes to their wedding food. When you hire a private chef from Honest to Goodness for your most special day, you will enjoy a highly personalized experience to celebrate you and your partner and impress your guests.
